

HISTORY OF HUANGLONGBING IN CALIFORNIA

Huanglongbing (HLB) is a fatal plant disease that kills citrus trees and has no cure. We must all work together to protect our citrus.

2008
First Asian citrus psyllid (ACP) found in California (San Diego)

MARCH 2012
First HLB+ tree found in Hacienda Heights

JAN-DEC 2016
19 HLB+ trees found

APR 2017
First HLB+ tree found in La Habra in Orange County

JAN-DEC 2018
699 HLB+ trees found

JAN-AUG 2019
569 HLB+ trees found

2009
Citrus Pest & Disease Prevention Committee established

SUMMER 2015
10 HLB+ trees found in San Gabriel

JAN-JUNE 2017
42 HLB+ trees found

JULY-DEC 2017
227 HLB+ trees found

DEC 2018
1,000th HLB+ tree found in Whittier in Los Angeles County

AUG 2019
1,500th HLB+ tree found in Garden Grove in Orange County

1,500+
Total HLB+ trees to date

1,016
Total square mileage in HLB quarantine

CALIFORNIA CITRUS THREAT.ORG
(Timeline is of 8/15/19 and subject to change.)